thank you to all who took part in this album, from near or afar.
thanks to those who believed in it, and lent me their frame when mine ran thin.
thanks to those who simply weighed the thought of joining in.
thanks to those who, across the past ten years, held me up, showed me a way, breathed life into my music, or simply haunted me.
thanks for listening to me sleep awake.
thank you for sailing this crossing with me.

to my mother, my brother, my grandmother, and my Virginies.
